How do I access The Wall Street Journal online?
The Carthage College Hedberg Library has a subscription to The Wall Street Journal online.

Creating an Account

- Users must sign up for an account via this registration link for digital access to The Wall Street Journal.
- Enter your Carthage credentials on the Lincoln Log-in page.

You will be taken to a page where you can create your own WSJ account. (The credentials you create will not change when you change your Carthage password.)
  - Enter your "Account Type."
  - Enter your First and Last Name.
  - Enter your Email address (which will be your username).
  - Choose a Password.
  - Agree to the Privacy Notice.
  - Click "Create."
  - You will be asked many, many times to indicate preferences and interests. You may "Skip this step" for all of them to continue on to WSJ content.
Once you have created an account you may access WSJ at www.wsj.com.

Accessing WSJ After Registration

- Click "Sign In" in the upper right.
- Log in with your Carthage email address and the password you created when setting up your account.
Forgotten WSJ Password

- Remember that WSJ passwords do not change when your Carthage password changes (except when you initially register for your account).
- Click the "Sign In" link in the upper right.
- Click on the "Forgot your username or password?" link.
• Enter your Carthage email address.
If you have questions please email help@carthage.edu.
